Nordwesthaus, Baumschlager Eberle

"The irregular structure of the concrete elements is set off against the regular rectangular shapes of the sheets of glass...The randomness of the glass decoration avoids too sharp a contrast between the core and the envelope."

ARCHITECT'S WORD - ARCHITECT'S WORLD
These words are used to express an architect's world. One word could be thousand ton of pictures in mind, it inspires one's imagination for creativities. I believe that developing one's design skill by the tool of word is the most powerful process.
